FREDDY FROG AND THE BOMB is the story of a 12 year old girl's thoughts on war and peace presented in mime by Camilla Tostrup in a style suitable for all ages.

Sponsored by the Government of Norway

CAMILLA TOSTRUP, who took her training at Norway's Royal Academy of Dancing, is one of the founders of MUSIDRA, Norway's oldest independent theatre. She has worked there in various capacities ranging from actress, puppeteer, writer and composer to designer and administrative director. She also makes appearances at the Oslo New Theatre and on Norwegian State Television. This is her second North American tour.

HELGE REISTAD, also a founder of MUSIDRA, was the company's artistic director for a number of years. Currently, he is a senior lecturer in Drama at one of Oslo's teacher training colleges.

ANNEMARIE AUTERE was a dancer with the Norwegian Opera in Oslo for thirteen years. She has also danced with the Swedish Opera of Stockholm and has toured Europe and the USA. In 1982 she moved into more experimental work specializing in mime.
